NEW* Prayer Ministry Forming

We are looking to start a Prayer Ministry. This ministry team would be comprised of individuals who are committed to an active prayer life, specifically praying for the ministries and families of

Grace Lutheran Church & School

- ◆ Every member of the church and school by name
- ◆ Our volunteers and the ministries of the church and school
- ◆ Our sick, shut-ins and needy
- ◆ New members, those newly baptized, confirmed and/or married
- ◆ Every staff member by name

Additionally, this group would plan and schedule special prayer services.

Please prayerfully consider if God is calling you to this ministry. If you are interested in serving on the team—or leading this ministry—please contact Andi in the church office, 301-932-0963 or aproctor@growingwithgrace.org.

This morning we are honored to baptize the following individuals at the 11am service.

Destiny French

Robert "RJ" French
son of Destiny French

Adeline Major
daughter of Destiny French and Tim Major

Haven Knight
daughter of Adam and Alexandra Knight

We'll have name tags available for everyone next Sunday. Pick one up—write your name on it and introduce yourself to someone new!

Statement on Holy Communion/The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes.

Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an usher.

For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34. Faith in Christ and His word is necessary for a blessed reception including Baptism in the name of the Trinity and faith in [1] Christ as Savior, [2] Jesus' clear words that the Sacrament is His body and blood, [3] the Lord's promise that in the Sacrament his or her sins are forgiven, and [4] receipt of the promised forgiveness reaffirmed and strengthened in his or her union with Christ and other Christians. The unbaptized and uninstructed person who does not yet know or believe in Christ and His promises is unprepared and should not commune. The unrepentant person who does not seek Christ's forgiveness for sins—either general or particular—or refuses to forgive someone is unprepared and should not commune. The doubting person who denies or is unconvinced of what Jesus says of His bodily presence in the sacrament or its promised forgiveness is unprepared and should not commune.

Prayer Before Communion

Dear Savior, at Your gracious invitation I come to Your table to eat and drink Your holy body and blood. Let me find favor in Your eyes to receive this holy Sacrament in faith for the salvation of my soul and to the glory of Your holy name; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer After Communion

Almighty and everlasting God, I thank and praise You for feeding me the life-giving body and blood of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Send Your Holy Spirit that, having with my mouth received the holy Sacrament, I may by faith obtain and eternally enjoy Your divine grace, the forgiveness of sins, unity with Christ, and life eternal; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for you . . . prayers@growingwithgrace.org

Community Life

We Need You!! Grace Lutheran Church and School has lots of ways for you to get involved. One way is through our "Hospitality Network". From volunteering in our for Coffee Hour, to creating a loving and caring environment for funerals, to working special events and receptions, this ministry brings joy to those we serve.

Team members: Terri and Jim Anderson, Nancy Miller, Alice Adams, Bruce and Betty Rowe, Lori DeLoache, and Sandy Curtis.

We can always count on the Scopps and Cartwrights to fill in when needed.

Thanks to Jeff Burkee for always making sure the Café is in tip top shape and to Lily Boswell for always taking care of the Tuesday Ladies during their meeting days.

We would love to have you join our team. Please contact Becky Hoffman 301-751-1167.

Altar Flowers

Today's flowers are given to the glory of God by Jim and Terri Anderson in celebration of Mike's birthday.

As noted in the last call process update, in early November, the Southeast District (SED) President provided GLCS with a list of pastors for consideration as our next senior pastor. The call committee reviewed the list of pastors, held phone conversations (via video-tele-conference (VTC)) with several pastors, and have invited a few pastors to visit GLCS in January. At this stage in the call process, we do not share the names of the pastors the call committee is considering; we are mindful the pastors may not have told their congregations they are open to considering a call.

As we look ahead, it's possible we may have a Call Service in late February or March. The Board of Servant Leaders will announce the Call Service (which is also a Voters Meeting). Prior to the Call Service, there will be Town Hall Meetings where the congregation will be provided additional information on the call process and the pastors.

The members of the call committee are: Paula Jones, Paul Lenker, Pat Lewis, Jo Moran, Erin Pomrenke, Rhonda Rich, Curt Springer, Dan Stine, Gretchen Toliver, and Gary Whitsell. The call committee continues to ask for your prayers and support as we seek to find the pastor we know that God intends for us to have. If you have any questions or would like additional information, email Curt Springer at curtaspringer@comcast.net or call 301-848-2642.

Commit to a Healthy You for 2020

The Sunday Morning Daniel Plan Group is beginning the new decade with a new book!

Building from the Daniel Plan's foundation of eating healthy to serve and praise our God, "Winning the Food Fight" will inspire you with stories of real people who have made the connection between spiritual wellness and physical health. Pastor Steve Willis' is a pastor in Huntington, WV, known as the "fattest city in America" and the focus of celebrity chef Jamie Oliver's Food Revolution.

Join us Sunday mornings, beginning January 12 at 9:45am as we seek to apply the Word of God to our daily life. We'll meet in room #205 (outside the school offices).

All adults are invited to join the Sunday School class. We meet in the school library ~9:45 and spend about 40-45 minutes reviewing the Bible readings for the day and other related biblical topics. Hope to see you there. If you have any questions, please contact Curt Springer at curtspringer@comcast.net or 301-848-2642.

Stewardship Verse

Luke 2:49 – “And he said to them, ‘Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?’”

What a privilege the Lord has given to us by calling us to come to His house! It is not a burden but rather an honor and a blessing for us to always be able to come to a place where we know God is present for us in His gifts of Word and Sacrament. Likewise, the Lord has honored us by allowing us to support the work of His house with our tithes and offerings.

What Do Lutherans Believe?

For the answer to that burning question, we invite you to join us for “Lutheranism 101,” a quick, usable and comprehensive overview of the Lutheran faith and practice. We’ll dig into the history of Lutheranism and learn what Lutherans believe about God and His Son, faith and belief, heaven and hell, sin and forgiveness...and much more!

This class is for everyone—lifelong Lutherans searching for more information or those who are new to Grace and looking to learn more about who we are and what we believe.

The first class will be held on Wednesday, January 15, 5-6pm, and will run through February 12 (5 sessions). A text book will be provided. To sign up, please contact Andi in the church office, aproctor@growingwithgrace.org or 301-932-0963.

Grace is proud to use Equal Exchange coffees and teas. These products are also available for purchase and make great gifts and items for gift baskets.

Please see the display in the café or contact Becky Hoffman, bhoffman@growingwithgrace.org

Help For Your Food Budget

SHARE, a non-profit, community-based organization, provides healthy and nutritious groceries at an almost 50% discount. This is accomplished through high-volume purchasing and thousands of volunteer hours.

Monthly packages cost $23 and include $40-$50 worth of basic and healthy groceries, typically made up of 4-6 lbs of frozen protein and 8-12 lbs fresh fruits and vegetables, sometimes with seasonal grocery or dessert items. "Specials" are also available each month.

See January's menu on page 9. If you'd like more information on the program or are interested in volunteering, please contact Alice Adams, amadams1@verizon.net.

Preparing to Receive Holy Communion

A small book: Preparing to Receive Holy Communion has been placed in the pews of the sanctuary and on the table of the Family Life Center. It is a resource for preparing to receive the Lord's Supper. You are encouraged to use it along with Lutheran Service Book prayers as you consider the mystery of the Sacrament of the Altar in your life and for devotion and doctrinal reflection as you prepare for the Blessed Sacrament

There are prayers and seven penitential Psalms used by the church for centuries to confess our sin and ask God for mercy and forgiveness for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. Classic hymns and poems give voice to our deepest thoughts about the gifts of the Holy Eucharist.

Please leave the books where you find them for the next user. This book is also available as a download from Concordia Publishing House ($6.99).

Offering Envelopes

2020 offering envelopes are now available. Please pick up your box from the table in the narthex.

IMPORTANT NOTE: You may not have the same envelope number as in previous years. If your number has changed, continue using your current number through 12/31. Your new number will be effective 1/1/20.

If you would like a set of offering envelopes, please sign up on the sheet provided. You do not need to be a member to request envelopes.

Compassion Center Volunteers Needed

The Southern Maryland Compassion Center is in need of volunteers during the following days and times:

When the trailer is here:
Th/F/Sa, 10am—2pm

When the trailer is not here
Th/Sa, 10am—12pm

Handyman/Mr. Fix-it for small repairs and maintenance.

If you are available—even if it's just one time—please contact Barbara Hays, 301-518-7321.

This is a vital resource to our community but it's only available if we have the volunteers. Please prayerfully consider whether the Lord may be calling you to this ministry.

Losing and Finding Jesus [Luke 2: 40-52]

Our text presents the first recorded words of Jesus

- The first words of Jesus are misunderstood – thematic for the rest of his life
- These are words of fate – Jesus is speaking of his future passion and resurrection in the Holy City

Luke gives us a glimpse into the life of a 12-year-old and his parents

- First – the family is a marriage unit – husband and wife and children go everywhere together
- 1 Peter 2:21 tells us that Jesus is our example: even at the age of 12
- At age 12 we are expected to act with discernment – meaning keep good company

The setting for our text is the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover

The people travel in companies and caravans with neighbors, friends, and relatives

- Mary and Joseph only know sorrow and distress absent the presence of Jesus
- When Mary and Joseph lose Jesus, they experience a complicated grief known as ambiguous loss

A lost child story

And it came to pass after three days, they found Him!

- Mary refers to Joseph as the father of Jesus - Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress
- Whereas Jesus claims God as his Father - Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?

Sometimes you and I lose Jesus.

- If we are not careful of distractions - we can lose Jesus even during Christmas
- And if we lose Jesus - we lose fellowship with his divine presence
 - The loss of Jesus is not without consequences for Mary and Joseph
 - Even the saints lose fellowship with God - Jonah, Noah, David, Samson, Peter
 - We must heed the apostle Paul: Let him that thinks he stands take heed, lest he fall (1 Corinthians 10:12).

Did you notice that Mary and Joseph lost Jesus one step at a time – their steps?

- Where did they find Him again? Right where they left Him.
- They treasure his words in their hearts since there is no doubt in childhood or adult ministry – he is full of wisdom and favor with God.

Entry to the Building

1. If you are volunteering or will be working in the school you must sign in through the school office and receive a visitor badge.
2. If your visit concerns only the church and you will not be entering the school portion of the facility, you can enter via the doors at the café or the sanctuary. Please use the doorbells indicated and someone will open the door for you.

Our God is a God who works through means. He can and has worked immediately without agency, as the Bible testifies, but primarily, on the whole and for the most part, our God works through means. He does this not only for all of our earthly needs but also for all of our spiritual needs. And He does this for our benefit.

He provides for all our needs of this body and life through means. He gives us fathers and mothers to care for us when we are young. Through them, God provides house and home, food and clothing, education and training in the arts and work of this world.

He gives us good government to protect us from harm and danger; He gives us faithful neighbors and good friends to help in times of need and lack. He gives us employers who trade our work for income so that we may acquire the needs of the body. He gives us brains and brawn so that we will have something to trade with those employers for that needed income. This work, which we are able to do only because of what God has provided to us, redounds to the benefit of others. And so, the cycle of God giving through means continues.

He provides for all our needs of our souls. He sent His Son into the flesh to be our Savior. In that body, our Lord Jesus Christ lived the life that God demands of us all – a life we have failed to live because of our sins – and, in that body, He made payment for those sins on the cross, once and for all.

God delivers this forgiveness through the means of His Word and Sacraments. He calls pastors to proclaim, in His stead and by His command, that our sins are forgiven for Jesus' sake. Through these same pastors, God Himself claims us as His own in Holy Baptism, placing His own name on us in water and Word, igniting faith by the gift of the Holy Spirit. And He gives us His life-giving body and blood to nourish us in this same faith until the end. Our God is a God who works through means.

This is true also of stewardship. This is what St. Paul wrote in Philippians:

“I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 4:18–19).

The gift St. Paul received from the Philippian church is a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. They gave to God. God provided for St. Paul through the Philippians. And the God who loves both Paul and the Philippians will supply their every need according to the riches in Christ Jesus. Our God is a God who works through means.

“For all the promises of God find their Yes in [Jesus Christ],” St. Paul tells us in 2 Cor. 1:20. This is true also of you. Trust in the God who provides for all that we need in body and soul through means. And not only will you find His “yes” to you, but others will find it, too, through you. “But as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you – see that you excel in this act of grace also” (2 Cor. 8:7).
