What Do Lutherans Believe?

For the answer to that burning question, we invite you to join us for “Lutheranism 101,” a quick, usable and comprehensive overview of the Lutheran faith and practice. We’ll dig into the history of Lutheranism and learn what Lutherans believe about God and His Son, faith and belief, heaven and hell, sin and forgiveness...and much more!

This class is for everyone—lifelong Lutherans searching for more information or those who are new to Grace and looking to learn more about who we are and what we believe.

The first class will be held on Wednesday, January 15, 5-6pm, and will run through February 12 (5 sessions). A text book will be provided. To sign up, please contact Andi in the church office, 301-932-0963 or aproctor@growingwithgrace.org.

Statement on Holy Communion/The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes.

Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an usher.

For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34. Faith in Christ and His word is necessary for a blessed reception including Baptism in the name of the Trinity and faith in [1] Christ as Savior, [2] Jesus' clear words that the Sacrament is His body and blood, [3] the Lord's promise that in the Sacrament his or her sins are forgiven, and [4] receipt of the promised forgiveness reaffirmed and strengthened in his or her union with Christ and other Christians. The unbaptized and uninstructed person who does not yet know or believe in Christ and His promises is unprepared and should not commune. The unrepentant person who does not seek Christ's forgiveness for sins—either general or particular—or refuses to forgive someone is unprepared and should not commune. The doubting person who denies or is unconvinced of what Jesus says of His bodily presence in the sacrament or its promised forgiveness is unprepared and should not commune.

Prayer Before Communion

Dear Savior, at Your gracious invitation I come to Your table to eat and drink Your holy body and blood. Let me find favor in Your eyes to receive this holy Sacrament in faith for the salvation of my soul and to the glory of Your holy name; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer After Communion

Almighty and everlasting God, I thank and praise You for feeding me the life-giving body and blood of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Send Your Holy Spirit that, having with my mouth received the holy Sacrament, I may by faith obtain and eternally enjoy Your divine grace, the forgiveness of sins, unity with Christ, and life eternal; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for you . . . prayers@growingwithgrace.org

Community Life

We Need You!! Grace Lutheran Church and School has lots of ways for you to get involved. One way is through our "Hospitality Network". From volunteering in our for Coffee Hour, to creating a loving and caring environment for funerals, to working special events and receptions, this ministry brings joy to those we serve.

Team members: Terri and Jim Anderson, Nancy Miller, Alice Adams, Bruce and Betty Rowe, Lori DeLoache, and Sandy Curtis.

We can always count on the Scopps and Cartwrights to fill in when needed.

Thanks to Jeff Burkee for always making sure the Café is in tip top shape and to Lily Boswell for always taking care of the Tuesday Ladies during their meeting days.

We would love to have you join our team. Please contact Becky Hoffman 301-751-1167.

Altar Flowers

Today's flowers are given to the glory of God.

As noted in the last call process update, in early November, the Southeast District (SED) President provided GLCS with a list of pastors for consideration as our next senior pastor. The call committee reviewed the list of pastors, held phone conversations (via video-tele-conference (VTC)) with several pastors, and have invited a few pastors to visit GLCS in January. At this stage in the call process, we do not share the names of the pastors the call committee is considering; we are mindful the pastors may not have told their congregations they are open to considering a call.

As we look ahead, it's possible we may have a Call Service in late February or March. The Board of Servant Leaders will announce the Call Service (which is also a Voters Meeting). Prior to the Call Service, there will be Town Hall Meetings where the congregation will be provided additional information on the call process and the pastors.

The members of the call committee are: Paula Jones, Paul Lenker, Pat Lewis, Jo Moran, Erin Pomrenke, Rhonda Rich, Curt Springer, Dan Stine, Gretchen Toliver, and Gary Whitsell. The call committee continues to ask for your prayers and support as we seek to find the pastor we know that God intends for us to have. If you have any questions or would like additional information, email Curt Springer at curtspringer@comcast.net or call 301-848-2642.

Help For Your Food Budget

SHARE, a non-profit, community-based organization, provides healthy and nutritious groceries at an almost 50% discount. This is accomplished through high-volume purchasing and thousands of volunteer hours.

Monthly packages cost $23 and include $40-$50 worth of basic and healthy groceries, typically made up of 4-6 lbs of frozen protein and 8-12 lbs fresh fruits and vegetables, sometimes with seasonal grocery or dessert items. "Specials" are also available each month.

If you'd like more information on the program or are interested in volunteering, please contact Alice Adams, amadams1@verizon.net.

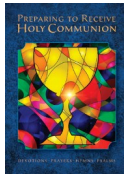

Preparing to Receive Holy Communion

A small book: Preparing to Receive Holy Communion has been placed in the pews of the sanctuary and on the table of the Family Life Center. It is a resource for preparing to receive the Lord's Supper. You are encouraged to use it along with Lutheran Service Book prayers as you consider the mystery of the Sacrament of the Altar in your life and for devotion and doctrinal reflection as you prepare for the Blessed Sacrament

There are prayers and seven penitential Psalms used by the church for centuries to confess our sin and ask God for mercy and forgiveness for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. Classic hymns and poems give voice to our deepest thoughts about the gifts of the Holy Eucharist.

Please leave the books where you find them for the next user. This book is also available as a download from Concordia Publishing House ($6.99).

If you'd like to add your email to our lists, please contact Andi in the church office at 301-932-0963 or aproctor@growingwithgrace.org.

Commit to a Healthy You for 2020

The Sunday Morning Daniel Plan Group is beginning the new decade with a new book!

Building from the Daniel Plan's foundation of eating healthy to serve and praise our God, "Winning the Food Fight" will inspire you with stories of real people who have made the connection between spiritual wellness and physical health. Pastor Steve Willis' is a pastor in Huntington, WV, known as the "fattest city in America" and the focus of celebrity chef Jamie Oliver's Food Revolution.

Join us Sunday mornings, beginning January 12 at 9:45am as we seek to apply the Word of God to our daily life. We'll meet in room #205 (outside the school offices).

Stewardship Verse

Matt. 3:15 – "But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.'" The reason God sent His Son into the world is to fulfill all righteousness for us, to do what we could not do.

So here Jesus plunges Himself into our sins and soaks them up in His Baptism, so that in our Baptism we might be cleansed and renewed. The whole of Jesus' life, everything He did and said, was one great offering to the Father in our stead to fulfill all righteousness for us. All our offerings back to our Lord are in thanksgiving for this one great, true offering.

Financial Notes

Please remember to use your new offering envelope number. If you haven't yet picked up your box, they are located on the table in the narthex or in the back of the family life center. All numbers have been reassigned—please do not use any number previously assigned to you.

Contribution statements will be mailed out this week. Please make sure to notify the church office if your address has changed within the last year.

JESUS LOVES YOU.★

*More Than You Know

Join the GLC&S Prayer Team

We are looking for individuals to be a party of our Prayer Team Ministry. This ministry team would be comprised of individuals who are committed to an active prayer life, specifically praying for the ministries and families of Grace Lutheran Church & School

- ◆ Every member of the church and school by name
- ◆ Our volunteers and the ministries of the church and school
- ◆ Our sick, shut-ins and needy
- ◆ New members, those newly baptized, confirmed and/or married
- ◆ Every staff member by name

Additionally, this group would plan and schedule special prayer services.

Please prayerfully consider if God is calling you to this ministry. If you are interested in serving on the team—or leading this ministry—please speak with Pastor Ed or contact Andi in the church office, 301-932-0963 or aproctor@growingwithgrace.org.

Stewardship 2020

You may have heard that the love of money is the root of all evil. It is a misquote. I Timothy 6:10 reads: For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. The operative word in the quote is love. As the verse continues - those transfixed by money, possessions, and mammon wander from the faith and sow sorrow and grief.

Our checkbook, debit card, and credit statements mirror our values and interest in this life. Expenses expose our intentional values. The Scriptures seem very clear here – our faith values ought to be the root of our budgets. Our first fruit expenses ought to be for the Gospel and compassion of Christ. Take a moment to think through your blessings in Christ this New Year with an eye to your past and future intentional giving to Jesus and his work of redemption. Consider reworking your monthly expenses in terms of intention and sanctified faith to better reflect you as a new creation in Christ. Know that the Lord Himself is God. It is He who has made us and not we ourselves [Psalm 100:3]. To paraphrase Jesus in Matthew 6: beware of practicing your righteousness – instead praise God first with your giving especially to the poor and needy in the church.

You see, the Bible teaches that Christian giving is an act of worship. In 1 Corinthians 16: 2, Paul says, On the first day of the week, each one of you is to put aside and save. Why put our offerings aside, and save on the first day of the week: because Paul knows that on the first day of the week we are going together to worship God. Very often we debate whether tithing is the standard for giving. But the Apostle Paul scuttles that whole discussion. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich. Paul is saying, now look; as you think about giving to those in need, keep in mind that Jesus came from glory and heaven's high halls and gave it all up so that you might know the wealth and security of heaven's high halls. In other words, He emptied Himself of His privileges that you might enjoy those privileges - give in this light!

Here's another principle. The Bible teaches that Christian giving should be done in accordance with our means. Sometimes you've see televangelists say things like, get that credit card out and make a pledge in faith that God's going to give that money to you. Well, compare what Paul says in 2 Corinthians 8:12: For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. That means two things. First of all, it means that our giving is to be proportionate to our means. Secondly, however, it means that the Lord never asks us to give what we don't have – he is not a proponent of unmanageable debt.

Finally, consider 2 Corinthians 9:7. The Bible also teaches that our giving is to be unconstrained, willing giving. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion. Yes, Christian giving is a requirement; obligation; and responsibility; but it is also voluntary sacrificial prayer, praise, and thanksgiving. And here Paul enjoins: Don't do this because somebody's standing over you with a whiplash. Do this because your heart desires to do that which is pleasing to God – for God loves a cheerful giver.

May the glory of God be your first priority in everything this New Year 2020. The eye of God is on the sparrow – it is also on you and me when it comes to stewardship.

Baptism – From Lost to Found [Baptism of Our Lord Matthew 3: 13-17]

Jesus appears at the Jordan River for baptism standing with sinners

- God the Father adjudicates the baptism of Jesus [Epiphany]
- The vicarious nature of the baptism of Jesus is explicitly stated by Saint Paul in our Epistle Lesson – we are joined to the death and resurrection of Jesus in Holy Baptism
- Saint Paul also identifies baptism as the circumcision of Christ in Colossians 2: 11-12
- Luther and the medieval church call baptism christening

Circumcision provides a profound theological insight into the very essence of baptism

- Abram gets a new name Abraham
- He receives a visible sign of God's promise to send a Savior born of woman

We are baptized by God in his name where God stakes his honor, power, and might on baptism

Have you made a decision for Christ? But is this what the Bible teaches? Can the unbeliever make a decision for Christ?

- You did not choose Me, but I chose and appointed you [John 15:16]
- We are according to Saint Paul dead in our sins
- A dead person is not capable of choosing or deciding anything

If you wish to choose: is baptism our promise from God or our promise to God?

- When Peter preaches at Pentecost the people are cut to the heart and ask brothers what shall we do?
- Peter does not direct them to an altar call
- He says: repent and be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ For the promise is for you and for your children

We speak with admiration about inherited physical traits - thank God such fondness does not extend to our inherited sinful nature

All people regardless of age receive the kingdom of heaven the same way: born of water and the Spirit

We close with two familiar sayings; first - show me your friends and I will show you your future

- In baptism - what a friend we have in Jesus

Show me your clothes and I will show you who you are – when baptized into Christ we put on Christ as our garment of salvation

- Scripture comes full circle in baptism – we receive the promise given to Abraham
- We are clothed and joined to Christ who is Abraham's singular seed
- We are born as the collective seed of Abraham - heirs of righteousness and citizens of heaven – it truly is christening
